Dear Campbell,

In response to your letter of January 25th, let me start by thanking you for the service you've given to the Scottish Fiscal Commission since its inception in 2014.

You have asked to step down and, now that we have secured the appointment of two new Commissioners, I'm able to let you know that March 10th will mark the end of your term as a Commissioner.

You've put a great deal of work into our independent scrutiny of forecasts for the last three budget rounds and have helped shape the Fiscal Commission in its early days. I'm grateful for your contribution.

By a separate note, I shall forward the public sector requirements for the return of its assets, though I believe you've already made arrangements.

Again we appreciate your contribution and wish you well in your academic endeavours.

With all good wishes,
